SUN JUNE 14, 4-7PM RACE UNITY DAY CELEBRATION

MUSICAL JOURNEYS TO RACIAL JUSTICE - Free Event

All welcome until capacity is reached! Join us to celebrate the 105th anniversary of Race Amity/Race Unity Day, started by the US Baha'i community in 1921! Eric Dozier leads and local interfaith gospel choirs sing.

Equal parts live performance, lecture, and revival meeting, "Musical Journeys To Racial Justice" is a unique way of experiencing the impact of music on American culture, identity and social progress. By the end, participants understand what it means to be an active and creative advocate of diversity and unity imbued with a renewed sense of mission and commitment to showing the world what community SOUNDS like. Reception will follow event.

"So powerful is the light of unity that it can illuminate the whole earth" - Bahá'u'lláh

Eric Dozier

INTERNATIONALLY ACCLAIMED CHOIR DIRECTOR AND CULTURAL ACTIVIST

Cultural activist, theologian, musician, and father, Eric is a former musical director of the world-famous Harlem Gospel Choir. He is the co-founder and National Director of Arts and Education for One Human Family Music Workshops, Inc., an organization dedicated to eradicating discrimination by "uniting the world...one song at a time," and one half of the duo Moanin' Sons, which uses music to confront racial inequality. Through soulful melodies, insightful lyrics, and interactive workshops, he dedicates his gifts to bringing hearts and minds together in a spirit of unity and love.
